

Elizabeth Lattime

beth.lattime@att.net

Objective: To provide quality, best practice intervention to families, individuals, and professionals.

EDUCATION: KENT STATE UNIVERSITY: KENT, OHIO

Master of Education: Intervention Specialist: December 2005: GPA 3.95

- K-12 Mild/Moderate, Endorsement: Reading
- Early Intervention Certificate: August 2015: GPA 4
- Anticipated Behavior Intervention Specialist Certificate Kent State: August 2016

Bachelor of Arts in Communications December 1996

- Minor: Media Sales and Production.

Developmental Specialist Intern: Kent State University August 2015-2016

- Implemented the principles of coaching, assessing, and teaming within home based settings and weekly professional meetings at Summit County Developmental Disabilities Board. (Jan-Aug 2015)
- Designed a best practice coaching intervention using Milieu Teaching Strategies which was awarded “honorable mention” through Kent State University’s annual graduate research symposium (March 2015)
- Led a “Brown Bag” presentation for developmental specialists from the perspectives of parent and professional of children with special needs going through the IFSP to IEP journey with their families
- Created and implemented best practice behavior intervention which led to the completion and delivery of a functional behavior assessment connecting back to family IFSP goals (July 2015)
- Observed and provided weekly feedback to supervisors leading Triple P and Responsive Teaching Techniques on behalf of families receiving early intervention through the Connections Program for Children with Autism (Family/Child Learning Center (August-December 2014)
- Extended principles of transdisciplinary teaming to enhance my son’s preschool IEP team to make it more collaborative in nature between therapists, teachings, aides, and extracurricular professionals. (ongoing)
- Generalized principles of coaching into current adaptive aquatic programming that I direct at LifeCenter Plus Health Club across varied ages of participants with disabilities (ongoing).

Teaching: Intervention : Administrative Experiences

Independent Contractor: Owner, Lattime Intervention Services, Stow, Ohio July 2010-Present

- Provide academic, life, and behavioral skills instruction to children and teens K-12th grades.
- Develop support materials for parents and children to ensure increased success outside of sessions.
- Consult and collaborate with parents as an advocate for their child through development of summary reports, IEP collection and feedback, and intervention development.

Director of Adaptive Recreation, LifeCenter Plus, Hudson, Ohio, October 2005-Present

Director of S.P.L.A.S.H.-Adaptive Aquatics and Gym-Based Classes, October 2005-Present

- Develop, direct and instruct group swim lessons and social play for children with disabilities.
- Conduct assessments and collect data for each participant based upon each participants strengths and weaknesses resulting from their given physical and/or mental disability.
- Train and lead administration for peer driven social programming, integrated swim team, as well as private and group swim lessons.
- Extend recreational opportunities to S.P.L.A.S.H. client base within gymnasium setting ..

Elizabeth Lattime

beth.lattime@att.net

Educational and Recreational Specialist, Kidslink Neurobehavioral Center, Twinsburg, Ohio, June 2008-April 2010

- Directed, instructed, and developed the first two years of the Autism Summer Camp for children 3-9 years of age.
- Developed and facilitated life skills programming for children 4-12 years of age.
- Facilitated recreational program within the community for teenagers with Aspergers Syndrome
- Provided private academic tutoring for patients with Autism.

Intervention Specialist, Tallmadge High School, Tallmadge, Ohio August 2006-June 2008

- Responsible for the direct management and development of Individual Education Plans (IEP'S) of 19 students with various levels of learning disabilities.
- Instructed students with learning disabilities in a resource room environment where differentiated instruction was provided in English and History for 9-12th graders.
- Collaborated with general educators as an inclusion teacher regarding assignment modifications, co-teaching strategies, parental correspondence, and behavior management recommendations.

Long Term Substitute Teacher, Tallmadge High School, Tallmadge, Ohio, February-May 2006

- Enhanced and developed lesson plans for Math, History, and Personal Management to coincide with intervention specialist's lesson plans, Ohio State standards, and IEP goals within a resource room for students with cognitive disabilities in grades 9-12.
- Collected data on students within the classroom, the workplace, and other community environments based upon their IEP goals and objectives.
- Collaborated with teachers, transition coordinators, parents, and paraprofessionals regarding students IEP academic and transition goals.
- Created student interventions to promote positive behavior and hygiene within the classroom, community, and workplace.

Additional Work Experiences

Student Teacher, Suffield Elementary School, Suffield, Ohio, September-December 2005

- Planned daily lesson plans for students with learning disabilities within a resource room environment in grades 1-3 for reading, language arts, and math.
- Served as co teacher in an inclusion classroom for students with learning disabilities grades 1-3.

Field Placement Duties and Private Tutor: Summit County, Ohio, Jan. 2004-May 2005

- Attended and provided feedback to parents and teaching professionals during IEP meetings.
- Implemented instruction for improving language and social interaction skills for individual students with Autism, Mental Retardation, and Fragile X.
- Designed an intervention for improving nutrition encountered as a result of celiac disease.

Aug. 2003-August 2005 Graduate Assistant Kent State University: Kent, Ohio

- Responsible for research data collection and summarization of Kent State University's Special Education program areas strengths and weaknesses mandated under the CEC:NCATE Project
- Developed an internal newsletter to build a communication source for students and faculty.

Oct. 1997-July 2003 Senior Account Executive Clear Channel Outdoor: Akron, Ohio

- Developed and maintained local and regional sales accounts for outdoor advertising.
- Exceeded all yearly sales goals and received national award for outstanding sales efforts in 2000.